THE ROYAL PHRASEOLOGICAL

ENCH-ENGLISH AND ENGLISH-FRENCH DICTIONARY.

By J. C. TARVER, LATE FRENCH MASTER, ETON COLLEGE.

[illegible]ndly do we acknowledge the flood of light which has been thrown on French by M. Tarver....His work is really a valuable addition to our Dictionary shelf [illegible] important shelf in every man's library. The nice skill with which he has [illegible] and contrasted the phrases of the two most influential of modern tongues can [illegible] ever-praised. Such a book might well deserve a distinct notice; but we are [illegible] take this opportunity, meantime, of saying that one of the volumes has now been in constant use with us for five years; and we should be at a loss to name another recent one of its class which we have found more useful. The idea was happy, and the execution has been most laudably careful. We have been infinitely obliged to it in reading the lighter French literature of this day—so full of vocables fresh from the mint of camp or guinguette, and lively audacious turns φωνασκα συνεσεως undreamt of by 'the forty'—which would have puzzled Voltaire as much as Johnson."—Quarterly Review

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES ON THE PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, B.A., LL.B., of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law,

Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-2."

 A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

"Mr. Brett's work is exactly the book which the Law Society require for the purpose (the Intermediate Examination). His style is clear, and often interesting; his work is particularly accurate, and, in some cases, minutely so . . . The writer has turned from page to page expecting to find some recent decision . . . . either omitted entirely or imperfectly stated; but Mr. Brett has, in all cases where principles are concerned, defeated him. . . . The book will be of use to practising lawyers as well as to the student. . . . It is a monument of industry and learning, and will rank as the best bird's-eye view of modern English law which has been written for many years."—The Speaker.

"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."—Law Journal.

"The book may be recommended as exceedingly useful for students preparing for examinations. . . . . But its merits are far beyond that purpose merely, and we repeat that the book may be confidently expected to take a prominent place among the practising lawyer's most used and best appreciated works of practice."—Juridical Review.

NOTICE.—The following two Books have been transferred to, and will in future be published by, WM. CLOWES AND SONS, Limited:—

Sixth Edition, royal 8vo, cloth, price 38s.

ROBSON'S LAW OF BANKRUPTCY: containing a Full Exposition of the Principles and Practice of the Law. Including the Law under the Bankruptcy Act, 1883; the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882; and Section 10 of the Judicature Act, 1875; also the Law relating to Private Arrangements with Creditors. With an Appendix comprising the Statutes, Rules, Orders, and Forms, including Forms of Compositions and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883. By GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

Opinions of the Press.

"Notwithstanding the many competitive volumes which have been recently published, Mr. Robson has maintained the position of his text-book on the Law of Bankruptcy the sixth edition of which has just been published. All the new rules and modern decisions are incorporated, and the author gives us a useful chapter on 'Composition or Scheme of Arrangement with Creditors.' We know of no better treatise on this branch of our law, and looking to the number of editions through which it has passed, our opinion is apparently shared by the profession."—Law Times, July 16th, 1887.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, that a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and as long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes, July, 1887.

"The present edition of Mr. Robson's well-known work appears as a stately volume. As regards the decisions on the Bankruptcy Act and the Bills of Sale Acts since the last edition, we may say that the characteristic of former editions is preserved; the cases are digested—not merely strung together as foot-notes or the head-notes copied in the text. There are few books which have passed through so many editions and yet read so much like a new book written in view of the latest, as well as the earlier, cases. A new chapter on private arrangements with creditors has been added, in which the subject is very fully considered under the heads of compositions, assignments, and the effect of these on the remedies of creditors and on sureties and secured creditors; and forms relating to statutory arrangements with creditors have been added to the appendix."—The Solicitors' Journal, Aug. 13, 1887.

"This is a new edition of a valuable book, bringing it thoroughly down to date. Since the publication of the last edition the Rules under the Act of 1883 have come into force, and there have been numerous important decisions, both under the Bankruptcy Act of 1883 and the Bills of Sale Acts. These are all duly noticed and commented on in the new edition. The book has also been increased by the addition of a new chapter on Private Arrangements with Creditors, and also some Forms of Composition and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, which cannot fail to prove useful to the profession. The bulk of the book has been kept within the same limits by slight increase in the size of the page. The new edition will be welcomed by all bankruptcy practitioners."—Law Journal, Aug. 19 1887.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR. Demy 8vo., cloth, 9s.

PRIVATE ARRANGEMENTS WITH CREDITORS (a Treatise on the Law of), with an Appendix containing the Deeds of Arrangement Act, 1887, the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882, and the Bankruptcy (Discharge and Closure) Act, 1887, with the Rules under the above Acts. Also Precedents of Deeds of Arrangement.

"The Legal Profession will hail with satisfaction Mr. Robson's treatise on the 'Law of Private Arrangements with Creditors.' . . The precedents appear to us to be thorough and practical, and the book, while it forms a useful supplement to the author's treatise on 'Bankruptcy,' must take rank with that excellent work."—Law Times.

"Those of our readers who possess Robson's 'Bankruptcy' will no doubt invest in the same author's 'Private Arrangements,' for it is professedly, as well as by outward appearance, a supplement to that classical volume."—Law Notes.

"Mr. Robson's work, as will be gathered from its title, contains the whole of the law relating to private arrangements with creditors, and is intended as a supplement to his well-known treatise on the 'Law of Bankruptcy.' Like that work, it is much pleasanter reading than most law books. . . Mr. Robson is an excellent authority on the subject."—Solicitors' Journal.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION,

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin.

Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

This Edition contains additional chapters on the Parliaments of the Nineteenth Century down to the Third Reform Bill (1884-85), with an important Note giving the Author's Views on the Irish Question, and a new and copious Index.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, Whither are we drifting? How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution? What is in store for us with democracy supreme? On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

"As a history of the English Constitution for English readers, Dr. Gneist's book has a great advantage over existing treatises. It is not too much to say that Dr. Gneist is indispensable to the student of English constitutional history. . . . The translation is, so far as we have been able to observe, generally correct and adequate, and English students have every reason to be grateful to Mr. Ashworth for introducing them to so valuable a work."—Athenæum.

"This book is a monument of German patience and industry. . . . Dr. Gneist's book, we may say in conclusion, ought to be on the shelves of every student of our constitutional history."—Saturday Review.

"Something like a natural reproach is removed by this tardy recognition of the great services which Dr. Gneist has rendered to the history of English institutions."—Academy.

"The heavy task of translating the book has been executed by Mr. Ashworth with taste and judgment."—Scotsman.

Third Edition, Revised, with Portrait, crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT,

Its Growth and Development through a Thousand Years, 800-1887.

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution."

Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenæum.

"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great a portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;" and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Especially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its selection. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The cases to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES ON THE PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, B.A., LL.B., of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law,

Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-2."

 A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

"Mr. Brett's work is exactly the book which the Law Society require for the purpose (the Intermediate Examination). His style is clear, and often interesting; his work is particularly accurate, and, in some cases, minutely so . . . The writer has turned from page to page expecting to find some recent decision . . . . either omitted entirely or imperfectly stated; but Mr. Brett has, in all cases where principles are concerned, defeated him. . . . The book will be of use to practising lawyers as well as to the student. . . . It is a monument of industry and learning, and will rank as the best bird's-eye view of modern English law which has been written for many years."—The Speaker.

"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."—Law Journal.

"The book may be recommended as exceedingly useful for students preparing for examinations. . . . . But its merits are far beyond that purpose merely, and we repeat that the book may be confidently expected to take a prominent place among the practising lawyer's most used and best appreciated works of practice."—Juridical Review.

NOTICE.—The following two Books have been transferred to, and will in future be published by, WM. CLOWES AND SONS, Limited:—

Sixth Edition, royal 8vo, cloth, price 38s.

ROBSON'S LAW OF BANKRUPTCY: containing a Full Exposition of the Principles and Practice of the Law. Including the Law under the Bankruptcy Act, 1883; the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882; and Section 10 of the Judicature Act, 1875; also the Law relating to Private Arrangements with Creditors. With an Appendix comprising the Statutes, Rules, Orders, and Forms, including Forms of Compositions and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883. By GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

Opinions of the Press.

"Notwithstanding the many competitive volumes which have been recently published, Mr. Robson has maintained the position of his text-book on the Law of Bankruptcy the sixth edition of which has just been published. All the new rules and modern decisions are incorporated, and the author gives us a useful chapter on 'Composition or Scheme of Arrangement with Creditors.' We know of no better treatise on this branch of our law, and looking to the number of editions through which it has passed, our opinion is apparently shared by the profession."—Law Times, July 16th, 1887.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, that a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and so long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes, July, 1887.

"The present edition of Mr. Robson's well-known work appears as a stately volume. As regards the decisions on the Bankruptcy Act and the Bills of Sale Acts since the last edition, we may say that the characteristic of former editions is preserved; the cases are digested—not merely strung together as foot-notes or the head-notes copied in the text. There are few books which have passed through so many editions and yet read so much like a new book written in view of the latest, as well as the earlier, cases. A new chapter on private arrangements with creditors has been added, in which the subject is very fully considered under the heads of compositions, assignments, and the effect of these on the remedies of creditors and on sureties and secured creditors; and forms relating to statutory arrangements with creditors have been added to the appendix."—The Solicitors' Journal, Aug. 13, 1887.

"This is a new edition of a valuable book, bringing it thoroughly down to date. Since the publication of the last edition the Rules under the Act of 1883 have come into force, and there have been numerous important decisions, both under the Bankruptcy Act of 1883 and the Bills of Sale Acts. These are all duly noticed and commented on in the new edition. The book has also been increased by the addition of a new chapter on Private Arrangements with Creditors, and also some Forms of Composition and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, which cannot fail to prove useful to the profession. The bulk of the book has been kept within the same limits by a slight increase in the size of the page. The new edition will be welcomed by all bankruptcy practitioners."—Law Journal, Aug. 19 1887.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR. Demy 8vo., cloth, 9s.

PRIVATE ARRANGEMENTS WITH CREDITORS (a Treatise on the Law of), with an Appendix containing the Deeds of Arrangement Act, 1887, the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882, and the Bankruptcy (Discharge and Closure) Act, 1887, with the Rules under the above Acts. Also Precedents of Deeds of Arrangement.

"The Legal Profession will hail with satisfaction Mr. Robson's treatise on the 'Law of Private Arrangements with Creditors.' . . The precedents appear to us to be thorough and practical, and the book, while it forms a useful supplement to the author's treatise on 'Bankruptcy,' must take rank with that excellent work."—Law Times.

"Those of our readers who possess Robson's 'Bankruptcy' will no doubt invest in the same author's 'Private Arrangements,' for it is professedly, as well as by outward appearance, a supplement to that classical volume."—Law Notes.

"Mr. Robson's work, as will be gathered from its title, contains the whole of the law relating to private arrangements with creditors, and is intended as a supplement to his well-known treatise on the 'Law of Bankruptcy.' Like that work, it is much pleasanter reading than most law books. . . Mr. Robson is an excellent authority on the subject."—Solicitors' Journal.

STEPHEN'S

COUNTY COURT ACTS, ORDERS, AND PRACTICE.

According to the scheme of the work, the Rules are printed immediately after the respective sections of the several enactments to which they particularly relate, thereby enabling the reader to see at a glance, Section, Rules, and Notes thereon.

By HENRY STEPHEN, of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law.

Editor of the Ninth Edition of "Stephen's Commentaries," and Joint Author of "The County Council Compendium;" and

REGINALD ARTHUR STEPHEN, Registrar of the Lincoln County Court.

"The peculiarity of the book is the novel scheme which has been adopted, and which we think will prove most acceptable to the busy practitioner and will save him much of his valuable time. . . . . The idea is a happy one, and its undoubted labour and time saving efficiency should recommend the book to solicitors . . . . in fact, everything is done to assist the practitioner."—Law Notes.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION,

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin.

Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

 This Edition contains additional chapters on the Parliaments of the Nineteenth Century down to the Third Reform Bill (1884-85), with an important Note giving the Author's Views on the Irish Question, and a new and copious Index.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, Whither are we drifting? How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution? What is in store for us with democracy supreme? On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

"As a history of the English Constitution for English readers, Dr. Gneist's book has a great advantage over existing treatises. It is not too much to say that Dr. Gneist is indispensable to the student of English constitutional history. . . . The translation is, so far as we have been able to observe, generally correct and adequate, and English students have every reason to be grateful to Mr. Ashworth for introducing them to so valuable a work."—Athenæum.

"This book is a monument of German patience and industry. . . . Dr. Gneist's book, we may say in conclusion, ought to be on the shelves of every student of our constitutional history."—Saturday Review.

"Something like a natural reproach is removed by this tardy recognition of the great services which Dr. Gneist has rendered to the history of English institutions."—Academy.

"The heavy task of translating the book has been executed by Mr. Ashworth with taste and judgment."—Scotsman.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT,

Its Growth and Development through a Thousand Years, 800-1887.

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution."

Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenæum.

"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great a portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;" and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

Anderson, Wm W., late 4, Clydesdale-rd, Notting Hill. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 819 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 25. That the executors of Walter J. Hood, deceased, and Jno Russ, and Jno Darley, and Frederic J. Tingle, and Jas J. Darley and Chas H. Cumberland, being respectively secured creditors of the debtor, shall release the sum of 325l. now invested in three 100l. Cape of God Hope Bonds and four 20l. South Austrian Railway Obligations, held by the said Hy J. Hood and Hy G. A. Knox, and the sum of 877l. 3s 4d. now invested in 77l. 18s. 11d. Bank of England Stock in the name of Jno Russ, and such investments shall be realized by the respective holders thereof for the benefit of the creditors generally, and that with the concurrence of the said secured creditors the debtor shall raise a further sum of 500l. secured on the existing Policies of Assurance on the debtor's life, and otherwise in a manner similar, but subject to the existing claims of the said secured creditors, which said sum, together with the net proceeds of the realization of the said investments, so to be realized after deducting the costs, charges, and expenses of realizing the said investments and of raising the said sum, shall be paid to the Trustee hereinafter mentioned for administration under this scheme. That to further secure the said 500l., and in consideration of the release of the said sums of 325l. and 877l. 3s. 4d, and to secure and indemnify the said secured creditors, the debtor shall execute in favour of Messrs. Jas J. Darley and Chas H. Cumberland, hereinafter referred to as the attorneys, a Power of Attorney in a form approved of by them, appointing them his attorneys to receive from the Secretary of State for India in Council, or his treasurer, or paymaster, or other person or persons authorized to pay the same, all and every sum or sums now due, or hereafter to become due and payable to the debtor on every account whatsoever. That out of the moneys so to be received by the attorneys a yearly sum of 840l. shall be set aside by the attorneys, who shall apply the same, in addition to the life interest of the debtor in the legacy under the will of Dame Anne Grace Agnes Anderson, subject to the costs, charges, and expenses hereunder, and other payments named in the scheme, in investing for accumulation as a Reserve Fund a sum not exceeding 140l. a year for payment of the principal moneys due under such mortgages or charges, and shall pay the balance of such yearly sum of 840l. to the Trustee for administration under this scheme until the creditors shall have received 10s. in the pound. The debtor shall, if required by any of the said secured creditors and with the concurrence of the attorneys, consent to an Order for the receipt by the Trustee, to be applied as is provided in this scheme, of the aforesaid sum of 840l., portion of the pay to which the debtor is entitled as an officer on the Unemployed Supernumerary List of Her Majesty's Indian Forces, or otherwise. That all debts to be paid in priority to other debts in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt shall be so paid, and all proper costs, charges, fees, percentages, and expenses. Mr. Geo Wreford, the Official Receiver, is the Trustee hereunder to administer the debtor's property. The Receiving Order is rescinded.
Davey, W. H., Somerset House, Strand, Civil Service Clerk. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1225 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 26. The debtor covenants to set aside for the benefit of his creditors the sum of 20l. on the first of each month out of his salary until his debts are paid in full, with interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, such monthly sums to be paid to the Senior Official Receiver in Bankruptcy, the first instalment payable on Feb 1, and to be applied by him:—1st. In payment of all proper costs, charges, and expenses. 2nd. In payment in priority and in full of all debts directed by the Bankruptcy Act, 1883, and the preferential payments in Bankruptcy Act, 1888, to be so paid. 3rd. In payment from time to time of dividends upon all debts which may be proved under these proceedings, until the creditors entitled thereto shall have received payments of their debts in full, together with interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. The provisions of this scheme shall be accepted by the creditors in satisfaction and discharge of their debts. The Receiving Order is rescinded.
Mondon, Petrus, 1, 2, and 3, Falcon-sq, and Lyons, France, Silk Importer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1337 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 27. To pay in full forthwith, on the approval by the Court of this Composition arrangement, all preferential debts, and proper fees, costs, charges, and expenses. To pay to all his unsecured creditors in full discharge of all debts provable under the Receiving Order a Composition of 8s. 3d. in the pound, payable by three instalments, as follows:—3s. 1d. in the pound in cash within seven days after the date of the said approval by the Court, 3s. 1d. in the pound in one calendar month from the like date, and 2s. in the pound in two calendar months from the like date. Payment of the preferential debts, fees, costs, charges, and expenses, and the first instalment of the Composition secured by the deposit of a sufficient sum therefor with the Official Receiver. To secure the second instalment of the Composition by permitting Mr. Percy Mason, the special manager, to remain in possession of the stock-in-trade, book debts, machinery, trade fixtures, and fittings not realized at the date of the approval of such Composition by the Court, until payment from the proceeds thereof, or otherwise, of the second instalment of the Composition. To secure payment of the third instalment of the Composition by the guarantee of the Law Guarantee and Trust Company Limited. To secure the payment of the Composition generally, by obtaining the withdrawal of the claim of Mrs. Mondon against the estate, amounting to 1,200l. STEPHEN'S

COUNTY COURT ACTS, ORDERS, AND PRACTICE.

According to the scheme of the work, the Rules are printed immediately after the respective sections of the several enactments to which they particularly relate, thereby enabling the reader to see at a glance, Section, Rules, and Notes thereon.

By HENRY STEPHEN, of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law.

Editor of the Ninth Edition of "Stephen's Commentaries," and Joint Author of "The County Council Compendium;" and

REGINALD ARTHUR STEPHEN, Registrar of the Lincoln County Court.

"The peculiarity of the book is the novel scheme which has been adopted, and which we think will prove most acceptable to the busy practitioner and will save him much of his valuable time. . . . . The idea is a happy one, and its undoubted labour and time saving tendency should recommend the book to solicitors . . . . in fact, everything is done to assist the practitioner."—Law Notes.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION,

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin.

Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

 This Edition contains additional chapters on the Parliaments of the Nineteenth Century down to the Third Reform Bill (1884-85), an important Note giving the Author's Views on the Irish Question, and a new and copious Index.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such questions as, Whither are we drifting? How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution? What is in store for us with democracy supreme? On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—

"As a history of the English Constitution for English readers, Dr. Gneist's book has a great advantage over existing treatises. It is not too much to say that Dr. G. is indispensable to the student of English constitutional history. . . . The translation is, so far as we have been able to observe, generally correct and adequate. English students have every reason to be grateful to Mr. Ashworth for introducing them to so valuable a work."—Athenæum.

"This book is a monument of German patience and industry. . . . Dr. Gneist's book, we may say in conclusion, ought to be on the shelves of every student of constitutional history."—Saturday Review.

"Something like a natural reproach is removed by this tardy recognition of the great services which Dr. Gneist has rendered to the history of English institutions."—Ath

"The heavy task of translating the book has been executed by Mr. Ashworth with taste and judgment."—Scotsman.

Third Edition, Revised, with Portrait, crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT,

Its Growth and Development through a Thousand Years, 800-18

By Dr. RUDOLF von GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution."

Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenæum.

"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great a portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

TUESDAY, Mar 24, 1891.

Browning, Jno, Brixham, Devonshire, Master Mariner. County Ct, East Stonehouse. (No. 30 of 1886.) Ord. Feb 11. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Aug. 11, on his filing with the Official Receiver, within one calendar month from the date of the Order, a release signed by each creditor in respect of the amount now due to him. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position.

Button, Reuben, the yr, Denton, near Gravesend, Kent, Architect and Surveyor. Count Ct, Rochester (No. 41 of 1890) Ord. Feb. 23. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Aug. 25. Bankrupt had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations.

Domsalla, Amandus A., 11 Motley-st, Curtain-rd, Shoreditch, Cabinet Manufacturer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 844 of 1887.) Ord. Feb 13. Discharge suspended for three weeks. Bankrupt discharged as from Mar 6 (the Public Examination was concluded on Aug 30, 1887). Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had on a previous occasion made a Composition or arrangement with his creditors, namely, in the year 1882.

Doncaster, Edm, Manchester, Carver and Gilder. County Ct, Manchester. (No. 76 of 1887.) Ord. Feb 25. Discharge suspended for one day. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had on a previous occasion made a Composition with his creditors, viz., in or about 1880 or 1881.

Ellis, D., Ossett, Yorkshire, Contractor. County Ct, Dewsbury. (No. 41 of 1886.) Ord. Feb 25. Discharge suspended for twelve months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Feb 25, 1892. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy, having kept no books of account at all; and had within three months preceding the date of the Receiving Order given an undue preference to some of his creditors; and during the two months preceding the Receiving Order the bankrupt realized almost the whole of his assets in such a manner that it is doubtful whether the full value could have been obtained therefor.

Fyfe, Jas, St. Stephen's-chambers, Telegraph-st, and of 30, Winchester-rd, Belsize Park, stockbroker. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1179 of 1889.) Ord. Feb 26. Discharge refused.

Levy, Maurice, Manchester, Wholesale Jeweller and Importer of Foreign and Fancy Goods. County Ct, Manchester. (No. 53 of 1887.) Ord. Feb 25. Discharge suspended for eighteen months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as sufficiently disclose his financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent, namely, from Mar 3, 1887; and had contracted the whole of the debts provable in his bankruptcy, amounting to the sum of 2,716*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.*, or thereabouts, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Michell, Jno, East Stonehouse, Devonshire, Travelling Draper. County Ct, East Stonehouse. (No. 36 of 1888.) Ord. Dec 10, 1890. Bankrupt discharged on consenting to Judgment being entered against him for 100*l.* and 1*l.* 10*s.*, for costs. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as sufficiently disclose his financial position; and had by certain indentures of settlement and assignment, dated Aug 31, 1887, conveyed certain property to his wife and children, but by an Order of the Divisional Court sitting in Bankruptcy the settlements were declared void as against the Trustee, under Sect. 47, sub-s. 1; and a sum of 225*l.*, the proceeds of certain sale moneys, was directed to be paid to the Trustee by the bankrupt and his wife. No order was made that the trust money should be paid into Court pending the Trustee's appeal, and the result of this was that a considerable part of such trust moneys was used by the bankrupt and his wife in contesting the Trustee's appeal, and, eventually, a balance of only 81*l.* was, by direction of the Committee of Inspection, received by the Trustee in discharge of such sum of 225*l.* directed to be paid to him and the costs incurred in the action.

Northcote, Augustus, 28 and 29, St. Paul's-churchyard, Lace and Sewed Muslin, and General Warehouseman. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1338 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 27. Discharge granted.

Robinson, Jas, Forest Gate, and of Stratford, Essex, Saw Mill Proprietor and Timber Merchant. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 448 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 10. Discharge suspended for twelve months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Feb 10, 1892. Bankrupt had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them; had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculation; and had on a previous occasion made an arrangement with his creditors, namely, in 1886.

Stringer, Emily, Manchester, Victualler. County Ct, Manchester. (No. 36 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 25. Discharge suspended for one day. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by her, and as sufficiently disclose her business transactions and financial position since May 29, 1889; had continued to trade after knowing herself to be insolvent, viz., from the month of January, 1890, and had contracted debts amounting to 38*l.* 15*s.* 3*d.* (out of gross liabilities amounting to 987*l.* 3*s.* 8*d.*) without having, at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Tatton, Chas, Norwich, Contractor. County Ct, Norwich. (No. 28 of 1885.) Ord. Feb. 25. Discharge refused. Bankrupt had omitted to keep proper books of account; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had contracted debts provable in his bankruptcy without having at the time any reasonable ground of expectation of being able to pay the same, and had brought on his bankruptcy by unjustifiable extravagance in living.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;" and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES ON THE PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND.

By THOMAS BRETT, B.A., LL.B., of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law,

Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881-2."

 A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

"Mr. Brett's work is exactly the book which the Law Society require for the purpose (the Intermediate Examination). His style is clear, and often interesting; his work is particularly accurate, and, in some cases, minutely so . . . The writer has turned from page to page expecting to find some recent decision . . . . either omitted entirely or imperfectly stated; but Mr. Brett has, in all cases where principles are concerned, defeated him. . . . The book will be of use to practising lawyers as well as to the student. . . . It is a monument of industry and learning, and will rank as the best bird's-eye view of modern English law which has been written for many years."—The Speaker.

"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."—Law Journal.

"The book may be recommended as exceedingly useful for students preparing for examinations. . . . . But its merits are far beyond that purpose merely, and we repeat that the book may be confidently expected to take a prominent place among the practising lawyer's most used and best appreciated works of practice."—Juridical Review.

NOTICE.—The following two Books have been transferred to, and will in future be published by, WM. CLOWES AND SONS, Limited:—

Sixth Edition, royal 8vo, cloth, price 38s.

ROBSON'S LAW OF BANKRUPTCY: containing a Full Exposition of the Principles and Practice of the Law. Including the Law under the Bankruptcy Act, 1883; the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882; and Section 10 of the Judicature Act, 1875; also the Law relating to Private Arrangements with Creditors. With an Appendix comprising the Statutes, Rules, Orders, and Forms, including Forms of Compositions and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883. By GEORGE YOUNG ROBSON, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

Opinions of the Press.

"Notwithstanding the many competitive volumes which have been recently published, Mr. Robson has maintained the position of his text-book on the Law of Bankruptcy the sixth edition of which has just been published. All the new rules and modern decisions are incorporated, and the author gives us a useful chapter on 'Composition or Scheme of Arrangement with Creditors.' We know of no better treatise on this branch of our law, and looking to the number of editions through which it has passed, our opinion is apparently shared by the profession."—Law Times, July 16th, 1887.

"This standard work on bankruptcy has reached another edition, the author wisely considering that in consequence of the many important cases recently decided and the issue of the new rules, that a new edition was desirable. We compliment the learned author on the wisdom of keeping his work well up to date. Of this edition we may fairly say, as of others, no practitioner with bankruptcy work should be without it; and as long as the author pursues the wise course of issuing fresh editions well up to date, we shall be able to accord future editions the same praise."—Law Notes, July, 1887.

"The present edition of Mr. Robson's well-known work appears as a stately volume. As regards the decisions on the Bankruptcy Act and the Bills of Sale Acts since the last edition, we may say that the characteristic of former editions is preserved; the cases are digested—not merely strung together as foot-notes or the head-notes copied in the text. There are few books which have passed through so many editions and yet read so much like a new book written in view of the latest, as well as the earlier, cases. A new chapter on private arrangements with creditors has been added, in which the subject is very fully considered under the heads of compositions, assignments, and the effect of these on the remedies of creditors and on sureties and secured creditors; and forms relating to statutory arrangements with creditors have been added to the appendix."—The Solicitors' Journal, Aug. 13, 1887.

"This is a new edition of a valuable book, bringing it thoroughly down to date. Since the publication of the last edition the Rules under the Act of 1883 have come into force, and there have been numerous important decisions, both under the Bankruptcy Act of 1883 and the Bills of Sale Acts. These are all duly noticed and commented on in the new edition. The book has also been increased by the addition of a new chapter on Private Arrangements with Creditors, and also some Forms of Composition and Schemes under Sections 18 and 23 of the Bankruptcy Act, which cannot fail to prove useful to the profession. The bulk of the book has been kept within the same limits by a slight increase in the size of the page. The new edition will be welcomed by all bankruptcy practitioners."—Law Journal, Aug. 19 1887.

BY THE SAME AUTHOR. Demy 8vo., cloth, 9s.

PRIVATE ARRANGEMENTS WITH CREDITORS (a Treatise on the Law of), with an Appendix containing the Deeds of Arrangement Act, 1887, the Bills of Sale Acts, 1878 and 1882, and the Bankruptcy (Discharge and Closure) Act, 1887, with the Rules under the above Acts. Also Precedents of Deeds of Arrangement.

"The Legal Profession will hail with satisfaction Mr. Robson's treatise on the 'Law of Private Arrangements with Creditors.' . . The precedents appear to us to be thorough and practical, and the book, while it forms a useful supplement to the author's treatise on 'Bankruptcy,' must take rank with that excellent work."—Law Times.

"Those of our readers who possess Robson's 'Bankruptcy' will no doubt invest in the same author's 'Private Arrangements,' for it is professedly, as well as by outward appearance, a supplement to that classical volume."—Law Notes.

"Mr. Robson's work, as will be gathered from its title, contains the whole of the law relating to private arrangements with creditors, and is intended as a supplement to his well-known treatise on the 'Law of Bankruptcy.' Like that work, it is much pleasanter reading than most law books. . . Mr. Robson is an excellent authority on the subject."—Solicitors' Journal.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;" and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

THIRD EDITION, WITH SUPPLEMENT. Crown 8vo. Cloth, 10s. 6d.; post-free, 11s.

"The Officers' vade mecum; . . . . in every respect adapted to the wants of those for whom it is intended. . . . . The work extends to the duties of officers of every grade and the knowledge essential to their successful execution. . . . . Civilians as well as military will find it an extremely useful addition to their libraries."—Morning Post.

"The book is one which will be constantly useful to all who are engaged in any military studies."—Vounteer Service Gazette.

"It is a handy and useful book, and it is a substitute for the larger and more expensive works of the same description, quite sufficient for the purpose of battalion officers."—Army and Navy Gazette.

"It would be difficult to find, in so handy a shape, so much valuable information of its kind as is given in this book. . . . . The authors have shown fitness for the task they have undertaken, and have produced as the result a most useful book."—Scotsman.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES on the PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND. By THOMAS BRETT, M.A., LL.B., Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881–82."

"*" A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

The Law Journal says, in the course of an exhaustive review:—"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION.—By DR. RUDOLPH GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin. Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, 'Whither are we drifting?' 'How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution?' 'What is in store for us with democracy supreme?' On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

Third Edition, revised, with portrait, crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT, its Growth and Development through a Thousand Years, 800–1887. By Dr. RUDOLPH GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution.' Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenæum.
"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

"This is a book we can thoroughly recommend to any person, whether lawyer or artist, who is interested in the subject."—Athenæum.
"Mr. Winslow . . . . . is clear, accurate, and practical, and has made a valuable contribution to the subject with which he deals."—Law Journal.
"The object of his book is to explain the rights of authors of artistic works of every description, and it is so satisfactorily attained, that the work is one that should be in the hands of every artist."—Magazine of Art.

BRETT'S COMMENTARIES on the PRESENT LAWS OF ENGLAND. By THOMAS BRETT, M.A., LL.B., Author of "Leading Cases in Modern Equity," and Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts, 1881–82."

"*" A main idea of this book is to bring into special prominence the present and living law, and only to deal with past law, or that which is practically obsolete, so far as it is necessary to enable the reader to understand the present.

The Law Journal says, in the course of an exhaustive review:—"We are able confidently to recommend these Commentaries to Students, with whom we venture to predict they will become deservedly popular. . . . . Mr. Brett's Commentaries are thoroughly comprehensive, and we have little but praise for the manner in which he has discharged his self-imposed task. . . . . We are of opinion that Mr. Brett has produced a work of very considerable merit."

Second Edition, 2 vols., demy 8vo., 32s.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH CONSTITUTION.—By DR. RUDOLPH GNEIST, Professor of Law in the University of Berlin. Translated by PHILIP A. ASHWORTH, of the Inner Temple, Esq., Barrister-at-Law.

"No foreigner has done more than Professor Gneist to examine and make clear the history and nature of the English Constitution. . . . He discusses such vital questions as, 'Whither are we drifting?' 'How far do recent changes in the franchise accord with the old spirit of the Constitution?' 'What is in store for us with democracy supreme?' On such questions as these the opinion of a foreigner, who is a scholar but no bookworm, and has sedulously studied our institutions, is certainly much more weighty than that of most Englishmen. . . . At this time these volumes are especially instructive. They cast light on almost all the great questions of current politics."—Times.

Third Edition, revised, with portrait, crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT, its Growth and Development through a Thousand Years, 800–1887. By Dr. RUDOLPH GNEIST, Author of "The History of the English Constitution.' Translated by Professor A. H. KEANE, B.A., F.R.G.S.

"English readers will certainly welcome a history of the English Parliament by the greatest living authority on the Continent."—Athenæum.
"It completes the vast survey of our English Institutions. . . . to which so great portion of Dr. Gneist's laborious life has been devoted."—Daily News.

By THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity College, Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;" and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett has done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as far as possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same classes of subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be found cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, the relations between solicitors and clients, married women's property, and the religious education of children. A good index adds considerably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admirable, being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no hesitation in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from which the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of equity during recent years."—The Jurist.

To pay in full forthwith, on the approval by the Court of this Composition arrangement, all preferential debts, and preferential payments in priority to other debts, and all proper fees, costs, charges, and expenses. To pay to all unsecured creditors in full discharge of all debts provable under the Receiving Order a Composition of 7s. 6d. in the pound, payable in cash on approval by the Court. Payment of the preferential debts, fees, costs, charges, and expenses, and the Composition secured by depositing the amount required for the same with the Official Receiver. The Receiving Order herein is discharged as regards the joint estate only.

TUESDAY, Apr 21, 1891.

Armstrong, Wm A. F., 1 St. James'-villas, New Hampton, Middlesex, and Medical Department, Admiralty, Civil Service Clerk. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 117.) Ord. April 15. The debtor proposes to set aside for the benefit of his creditors the sum of 2l. 10s. on the first day of each month out of his salary of 230l. per annum, as a Clerk in the Medical Department of the Admiralty, such monthly sums to be paid to the senior Official Receiver in Bankruptcy, the first instalment to be paid on the first day of the month next following the date of the approval by the Court of this scheme of arrangement, or the debtor's reinstatement in his office, and to be applied by him as follows:—In payment of proper fees, costs, charges, and expenses; in payment in full of all preferential debts and preferential payments; and in payment from time to time of dividends upon all debts which may be proved under these proceedings until the creditors entitled thereto shall have received 10s. in the pound. The provisions of this scheme to be accepted by the creditors in satisfaction and discharge of their debts. The Receiving Order is discharged.
Williams, Herbert M., 37, Sutherland-place, Bayswater, Major in the Middlesex Regiment of Her Majesty's army (retired). High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 776.) Ord. Mar 10. The debtor proposes (if the Secretary of State for War consents) to set aside 100l. per annum out of his retired pay of 300l. as from the 1st day of January, 1891, to be paid quarterly, upon the days upon which such retired pay is usually payable, to the Official Receiver for such period as may be required for effecting the trusts hereinafter mentioned:—That the said sum so set aside and received by the Official Receiver shall be held by him upon trust:—1st. To pay in full all preferential debts, preferential payments, and proper fees, costs, charges and expenses. 2nd. To declare and pay dividends as in bankruptcy from time to time as and when the moneys in hand available for such dividends shall amount to the sum of 100l., until the whole of the unsecured creditors of the debtors shall have received 20s. in the pound, or until such commutation of a portion of his retired pay shall be effected by the debtor as hereinafter mentioned. The debtor further proposes that so soon as he shall attain the age entitling him according to the regulations to apply for a commutation of part of his said retired pay, that he shall apply for the commutation of 100l. a year, part of his said retired pay. That in such commutation being effected (if the Secretary of State for War consents thereto), and the amount awarded as commutation allowance being paid to the Official Receiver, the Official Receiver out of such amount, together with any balance remaining in his hands, shall declare and pay a final dividend as in bankruptcy, such final dividend, with any dividends that may have been paid previously, to be accepted in full satisfaction and discharge of all debts provable under these proceedings. Should such consent be withheld, the debtor agrees that this proposal is to be void and of no effect, and he undertakes to make application for such commutation as early as the regulations for the time being in force permit. The bankruptcy herein is annulled.

Orders made on Applications for Discharge.

FRIDAY, Apr 17, 1891.

, Jas T, Walton, Lancashire, Joiner, and Builder, and Grocer. County Ct, Liverpool. (No. 24 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 6. Discharge suspended for three months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from June 6. Bankrupt had failed to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent.

, Wm T., Redditch, Worcestershire, Grocer. County Ct, Birmingham. (No. 1087.) Ord. Mar 19. Discharge suspended for three months from Mar 19. Bankrupt to be discharged as from June 19. Bankrupt had kept such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, but they do not sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

, Arthur E., Birmingham, Hotel Manager. County Ct, Birmingham. (No. 91 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 19. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Sept 19. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

, Thos, Dewsbury, Yorkshire, Ale and Porter Merchant. County Ct, Dewsbury. (No. 3 of 1889.) Ord. Feb 25. Discharge granted as and from Mar 1, subject to the following conditions, viz.:—Debtor to consent to Judgment being entered against him in the County Ct, Dewsbury, for the sum of 30l., being the sum required to provide for the increase of the dividend of 2s. 3½d., already paid, to 20s. in the pound. Bankrupt had not kept a complete cash book or sold ledger; had, four years before the date of the Receiving Order, effected a private arrangement with his creditors.

, Wm, Liverpool, Clothier's Manager. County Ct, Liverpool. (No. 2 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 13. Discharge of bankrupt granted, he having paid 10s. in the pound and costs. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent.

, S, King-st, Snow Hill, Cork Dealer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. [illegible].) Ord. Mar 17. Discharge suspended for two years from July 1, 1890. Bankrupt to be discharged as from July 1, 1892. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent.

, Jas, and Wm Hawley, Walsall, Saddlers' Ironmongers. County Ct, Walsall. (No. [illegible] of 1889.) Ord. Jan 22. Discharge suspended till Aug 1. Bankrupts continued to trade after knowing themselves to be insolvent; and had contracted all the debts set out in sheet A of their joint Statement of Affairs provable in bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

, Jno E., Heckmondwike, Yorkshire, Salesman. County Ct, Dewsbury. (No. [illegible] of 1890.) Ord. Mar 18. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Sept 18. Bankrupt had kept no books of account in connection with the development of a patent obtained by him, by reason of which no complete real verification of the bankrupt's deficiency could be made.

, Jas, Bradford, Yorkshire, Cigar Merchant. County Ct, Bradford. (No. 53 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 24. Discharge suspended three years. Bankrupt had omitted to keep proper books of account; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculation; and had made an assignment of his property for the benefit of his creditors.

, E., Globe-st, Great Dover-st, Canister Manufacturer. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1415 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 17. Discharge suspended for three years. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Mar 17, 1894. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had within three months preceding the date of his Receiving Order, when unable to pay his debts as they became due, given an undue preference to one of his creditors.

Orders made on Applications for Discharge.

FRIDAY, Apr 24, 1891.

Fearnley, Geo B., Dewsbury, Yorkshire, Corn Miller. County Ct, Dewsbury. (No. 49 of 1884.) Ord. Mar 18. Discharge suspended for four calendar months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from July 18. Bankrupt had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had previously effected an arrangement with his creditors in connection with which two bills were given by the bankrupt for payment of two creditors in full, it being alleged of these that one constituted a fraud upon the creditors generally, and that both were liabilities which the bankrupt could not reasonably have undertaken, having regard to his means of meeting them.

Peacock, Lorenzo, Leeds, late Innkeeper. County Ct, Leeds. (No. 65 of 1886.) Ord. Mar 19. Discharge suspended for four months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted some portion of his debts without having at the time of contracting the same any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Perring, Jas, Holbeton, nr Ivybridge, Devonshire, Baker and Grocer. County Ct, East Stonehouse. (No. 33 of 1887.) Ord. Feb 11. Discharge granted as and from Aug 11. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting such debts any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay the same.

Portway, Cressell J., Egham, Surrey, Grocer, Wine and Spirit Merchant, &c. County Ct, Kingston, Surrey. (No. 21 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 13. Discharge suspended for twelve months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, within three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them; and had made a settlement before and in consideration of marriage not being able to pay all his debts without the aid of the property comprised in the settlement.

Waldock, Ernest E., Moseley, nr Birmingham, Tailor. County Ct, Leeds. (No. 81 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 19. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt had contracted the debts provable in the bankruptcy, without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Walker, Saml, Leeds, Poulterer. County Ct, Leeds. (No. 61 of 1886.) Ord. Mar 19. Discharge granted subject to the following, viz: bankrupt to pay to the Official Receiver out of the earnings which may afterwards become due to him, the sum of 1*l.* per month for a period of twelve months. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting the same any reasonable or probable ground of expectation of being able to pay them.

Williams, Wm H., Birmingham, Baker and Confectioner. County Ct, Birmingham. (No. 51 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 19. Discharge granted subject to bankrupt consenting to Judgment being entered against him in the County Ct at Birmingham for the sum of 30*l.*, together with 1*l.* 10*s.* for costs of Judgment. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding the bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; and had contracted debts provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting them any reasonable or probable grounds of expectation of being able to pay them.

Wilson, Geo B., Newcastle-on-Tyne, Solicitor. County Ct, Newcastle-on-Tyne. (No. 53 of 1888.) Ord. Jan 16. Discharge suspended for three months. Bankrupt had continued to trade after knowledge of insolvency. (This Amended Notice is substituted for that published in the London Gazette of Feb 10.)

TUESDAY, Apr 28, 1891.

Hobbs, Ebenezer, Tyldesley, and Eccles, Lancashire, Grocer and Provision Merchant. County Ct, Bolton. (No. 7 of 1890.) Ord. Apr 1. Discharge suspended for six months, to be granted as from Oct 1. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent; had put some of his creditors to unnecessary expense by frivolous defences to actions properly brought against him; and had on a previous occasion, namely in 1886, made a Composition with his creditors.

Lockwood, Eliz, Kirkburton, nr Huddersfield, Dyer. County Ct, Huddersfield. (No. 1 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 13. Discharge suspended for six months. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Sept 13. Bankrupt had omitted to keep proper books of account; and had within three months preceding the date of the Receiving Order, when unable to pay her debts as they became due, given an undue preference to some of her creditors.

Smith, Thos, 39, Cecile-pk, Crouch End, Builder. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1455 of 1890.) Ord. Mar 24. Discharge suspended for three years. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Mar 24, 1894. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had brought on his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations.

Symes, Jno J., 39, High-st, Camden Town, Wholesale and Retail Provision Merchant. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 1476 of 1889.) Ord. Mar 24. Discharge suspended for two years and a half. Bankrupt to be discharged as from Sept 24, 1893. Bankrupt had omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him, and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy; and had continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent.

Orders on Applications to Approve Composition or Scheme.

FRIDAY, May 8, 1891.

Jno C., 31, Bloomsbury-st, Bedford-sq, Gentleman. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 976 of 1889.) Adj Sept 19, 1889. Annul. May 4. The Trustee certifying that Dalton T. Miller and Chas H. Norton have complied with the terms of the Scheme of Arrangement herein so far as they are concerned, and that the property of the bankrupt has in pursuance of such scheme been duly conveyed and assigned to the said Dalton T. Miller and Chas H. Norton.

TUESDAY, May 12, 1891.

D'Albiac, Wm W., otherwise Dalbiac, 43, Colville-gdns, Esq. High Ct of Justice, in Bkcy. (No. 994 of 1890.) Ord. May 7. Debtor to set aside for the benefit of his creditors, out of his pension of 543l. 6s. 8d., per annum as a retired officer of the Inland Revenue Department of Her Majesty's Civil Service, the sum of 250l. per annum, by equal monthly payments of 20l. 16s. 8d., the first of such monthly payments to be made on the first day of the month next after the date of the Order of the Court approving the scheme, and to be applied by the Official Receiver as follows:—1st, in payment of proper costs, charges, expenses, fees, and percentages. Next, in payment in priority and in full of all preferential debts. And next, in payment of dividends from time to time upon all debts due from the debtor and proved under these proceedings, until the creditors shall have received payment of their debts in full. The consent of the Trustee of the settlement made on the marriage of Arthur F. Waters with a daughter of the debtor has been obtained to prove against the estate for the sum of 2,500l. only, instead of 5,000l. for dividend. Pending the said approval of this scheme, the debtor undertook to pay over to the Official Receiver 20l. 16s. 8d. per month out of his said pension as part of his estate. The Receiving Order is rescinded.
Ray, Michael, Admiralty Office, Spring-gdns, Clerk in the Civil Service of Her Majesty's Government. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 62.) Ord. May 6. To set aside out of his salary of 451l. 10s. a year, a sum of 40l. a year for the benefit of his creditors, until they shall have received a dividend of 21s. in the pound, and to pay the same to the Official Receiver by monthly instalments, beginning on the 1st day of August next, or to consent to such orders as may be necessary to enable the Official Receiver to receive the said instalments from the Admiralty Office. The sum so received to be applied by the Official Receiver in payment of fees, costs, charges, and expenses; payment in full of all debts directed to be paid in priority of all other debts, if any; and in payment of dividends to the unsecured creditors until they shall have received payment, in full, of the debts provable by them against the estate. By way of security for the receipt by the creditors of such dividends, the debtor will take out and assign to the Official Receiver, within one week of the approval of this arrangement, a policy on his life, for 300l. in the North British and Mercantile Life Insurance Company.
Stephenson, Geo, Beckenham, Kent, Builder. County Ct, Greenwich. (No. 45 of 1890.) Ord. Feb 25. To pay all preferential claims, costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the proceedings, and a Composition of 5s. in the pound on all debts proved under the bankruptcy within fourteen days of the approval by the Court. The due payment of the aforesaid costs, charges, expenses, and Composition to be guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Official Receiver, or a sufficient amount to be deposited with him before the Second Meeting.
White, Robt H., Eyarsh, Kent, Landowner. County Ct, Maidstone. (No. 12 of 1890.) Ord. May 7. That the debtor's wife, and his brothers Herbert White and Claude Hamilton White, and Frank Bradshaw, the executors of Thos White, deceased, and Messrs. Wigan, Mercer, and Co., withdraw all claims against the estate, and such of them as have proved withdraw their proofs, 300l. to be paid to the Official Receiver, to be distributed as follows:—1st, in payment in priority to all other debts of all debts directed to be so paid in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt. 2nd, in payment of all proper costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the proceedings, and all fees and percentages payable to the Official Receiver and the Board of Trade. 3rd, in payment, pro rata, of all the debtor's debts as in bankruptcy other than those which may be due to the persons who have undertaken to withdraw their proofs and claims as aforesaid, the balance, if any, to be paid to the debtor's solicitor. That the Receiving Order be rescinded on the approval by the Court of this scheme.

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1890.

THE Council desire to submit their Financial Statement and Balance Sheet for the year 1890, by which it will be seen that the Subscriptions for the Law Reports, 1890, received by the Council amounted to the sum of 22,348*l.* 1*s.* 10*d.*, showing an increase as compared with 1889 of 115*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*; that the amount received for the Law Reports published prior to 1890, together with the sums received on account of the Index to the London Gazettes, &c., amounted to 769*l.* 18*s.* 1*d.*; that the Council's proportion of advertisements amounted to the sum of 47*l.* 6*s.* 10*d.*, and that the interest for money on Deposit and Investments realised the sum of 1209*l.* 19*s.* 3*d.*, making the total receipts for the year 24,375*l.* 6*s.* as against 24,488*l.* 4*s.* 10*d.* received in 1889.

The expenditure for printing and delivery of the Reports, Weekly Notes, Indian Appeals, and other Publications of the Council amounted to the sum of 13,640*l.* 18*s.* 1*d.*, the Office Expenses to 186*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.*, and a charge for Income Tax of 5*l.* 15*s.* 11*d.* The amount expended in the payment of Salaries, including the usual Bonus to the Staff, amounted to 13,557*l.* 4*s.* 2*d.*, making the total expenditure for the year 27,390*l.* 14*s.* 10*d.*, as compared with 25,779*l.* 2*s.* 10*d.* expended the previous year. This increase of 1621*l.* in the year's expenditure was caused by the cost of the Government Index to the Statutes, which the Council presented gratis to their Subscribers, but for which the Council paid above 2000*l.*, including the cost of delivery in all parts of the Kingdom and abroad. The year's expenses also include the sum of 1500*l.* paid in advance on account of the New Consolidated Digest now in course of preparation by the Council.

The balance of Revenue brought forward at the commencement of the year 1890 amounted to the sum of 12,096*l.* 16*s.* 9*d.*, and deducting the sum of 3015*l.* 8*s.* 10*d.*, being the excess of expenditure above the total receipts for the year 1890, there remained a balance of Revenue amounting to the sum of 9081*l.* 7*s.* 11*d.* in addition to the Reserve Fund of 20,000*l.*, and the stock in hand at the same date valued at 3754*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.*

The Accounts have been duly audited and found correct.

The General Digest of the Law Reports, from 1865 to 1890, is rapidly progressing towards completion, the Council having engaged five gentlemen for the work of compilation, and an Editor for general supervision, and they hope shortly to be in a position to make an announcement as to the period when the work will be ready and the price to be charged; but as the undertaking is one of vast labour and extent, requiring special care and accuracy, the Council feel that it would not be wise to hurry its publication.

A New Series of the Law Reports was commenced with the current year, 1891, after great and repeated consideration, and the Council are in a position to state that it has been received with favour, and that a considerable number of the Profession have availed themselves of the opportunity to become subscribers for the first time.

The Council desire to express their acknowledgments to the Law Lords, Her Majesty's Judges, and the Profession generally, for the facilities they have given to the Staff during the year in reference to the preparation of the Law Reports.

By Order,

(Signed) JOSEPH BROWN,
Chairman.

To pay or cause to be paid to the creditors the [illegible] 20s. in the pound on their respective debts, including the bankrupt's [illegible] costs of the action, the British Tanning Company v. Groth, 1889, B., No. [illegible] the action Groth v. the British Tanning Company, 1889, G., No. 1968, with [illegible] thereon, at the rate of 5 per centum per annum from the date of the [illegible] Order, the same to be paid as follows:—2s. in the pound within seven days [illegible] date of the approval by the Court of this scheme of arrangement, and the [illegible] thereof, with the said interest, within six months from the date of the said [illegible] Before the approval by the Court of this scheme to make provision to the satisfaction of the Official Receiver for the payment of all the preferential debts, [illegible] expenses, fees, percentages, and costs. As security for the due carrying out of the scheme, and the payment of all moneys payable hereunder, Mr. Frederick [illegible] Solicitor, of 75, Mark-lane, in the city of London, shall hold as Trustee [illegible] but subject to his own lien, the patent known as Groth's Patent, No. 743-[illegible] process of tanning by electricity, and the bankrupt shall use all reasonable [illegible] with a view to the profitable development or disposal of the same. If all the money payable hereunder shall not be paid within six months from the date [illegible] said approval, the said patent shall be sold and the proceeds subject to [illegible] and after payment of all costs, charges, expenses, fees, and percentages [illegible] remaining unpaid, shall be applied in payment of the respective debts [illegible] creditors, and interest thereon at the rate aforesaid. The bankruptcy is [illegible] and the property of the debtor is revested in him, subject to the trust and [illegible] the said scheme mentioned.

TUESDAY, MAY 19, 1891.

Buckler, Jos R., Chapel End, nr Nuneaton, Warwickshire, Cattle Dealer and Butcher's Assistant. County Ct, Coventry. (No. 4.) Ord. May 11. To pay in full all preferential debts and the costs of the bankruptcy proceedings, and a Composition of 7s. 6d. in the pound payable by two equal instalments, at three and six months respectively from the date of approval by the Court. The composition to be secured by the deposit with the Official Receiver by Josiah Buckler of a mortgage deed for 500*l.*, and the guarantee of Robt Buckler and Josiah Buckler. The claim of Robt Buckler and Jas H. Buckler to stand in abeyance until the Composition has been fully paid. The Receiving Order is rescinded, and the Order of Adjudication annulled.

Wotton, Edwin, 17, Gracechurch-st, Timber Merchant. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 236.) Ord. May 12. All the real and personal property of or to which the debtor is beneficially possessed or entitled, whether in possession, reversion, remainder, expectancy, or otherwise, property having as wide a meaning as in the Bankruptcy Act, 1883 (except debtor's household furniture), shall vest in Algernon Osmond Miles, of 28, King-st, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, as Trustee (or failing him in such person as may be appointed at a future meeting of creditors to be summoned by the Official Receiver), to realise and distribute the same amongst the debtor's creditors, in like manner as if his estate were being wound up in bankruptcy. A Committee of Inspection has been appointed with all the powers and duties as if they were appointed a Committee of Inspection in Bankruptcy. As a condition of this scheme being approved, certain creditors withdraw their claims and proofs against the debtor's estate, and Ernest Lafont Heatley has undertaken to pay to the Trustee herein towards and in aid of debtor's assets, and for the benefit of debtor's creditors, one-half of his share in the capital of the debtor's late firm of Heatley, Wotton, and Co., up to 10,000*l.*, such sum to be in addition to debtor's share of, or right in, the capital of the said firm of Heatley, Wotton, and Co., to vest in the Trustee herein. And in addition, after deduction of maintenance at the rate of [illegible] per annum, the debtor will convey to, or vest in, the Trustee all property (property having the same meaning as in the Bankruptcy Act, 1883), which he may acquire or become entitled to within one year from the date of the Receiving Order, and that, on the expiration of such period of one year, this scheme to be then and accepted in satisfaction of his debts. All proper costs, charges, expenses, fees, and percentages be paid in priority out of the moneys forming part of debtor's estate in the hands of the Official Receiver. Preferential debts are to be paid by the Trustee out of the estate vested in him. The Receiving Order herein is discharged.

BY THOMAS BRETT,

Of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, LL.B.; London University, B.A.; late Scholar and Student of Trinity Colleg Dublin; Exhibitioner in Real Property and Equity; Holder of the First Certificate of Honour, Michaelmas, 1869; Joint Author of "Clerke and Brett's Conveyancing Acts;" Author of "Brett's Bankruptcy Act, 1883;", and Lecturer in Equity to the Incorporated Law Society.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Specially recommended as a text book for 'The Final.'"—Solicitors' Journal, Jan. 21, 1888.

"Deserves high praise for the care and judgment evinced in its execution. Mr. Brett's index appears to be copious and complete."—Law Times.

"We have laid Mr. Brett's book down with none but favourable and pleasurable feelings at the excellent manner in which he has accomplished his task. It is of the very first importance both to the student and the practitioner to have the principles of Equity collected in a handy form, and this want Mr. Brett has supplied. The notes to the cases are admirable in manner and lucid in language; and no little pains seem to have been bestowed in the arrangement of the cases themselves."—Law Magazine.

"Must prove of immense value to the profession. Mr. Brett done all in his power to help students and practitioners by as f possible grouping together the cases dealing with the same class subjects. Among the more important matters decided will be f cases relating to trusts and trustees, mortgages, partnerships, relations between solicitors and clients, married women's prop and the religious education of children. A good index adds con ably to the usefulness of the work."—Daily Chronicle.

"The manner in which most of the cases are stated is admi being clear, concise, and well expressed. As it is, we have no h tion in saying that there is no better book, or one so good, from the student can learn the most important decisions of courts of e during recent years."—The Jurist.

COUNCIL OF LEGAL EDUCATION.

MICHAELMAS EXAMINATION, 1891.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR PASS CERTIFICATES.

The attention of Students is requested to the following Rules:—

No Student shall receive from the Council the Certificate of Fitness for call to the Bar required by the four Inns of Court unless he shall have passed a satisfactory Examination in the following Subjects—viz., (1) Roman Law; (2) The Law of Real and Personal Property; (3) Common Law; and (4) Equity.

No Student (except such as come under the next stated Rule) shall be examined for call to the Bar until he shall have kept nine Terms;

but Students shall have the option of passing the Examination in Roman Law at any time after having kept four Terms.

A Student who, previously to his admission at an Inn of Court, was a Solicitor in practice for not less than five years, may be examined for call to the Bar without keeping any terms.

An Examination will be held in October next, to which a Student of any of the Inns of Court, who is desirous of becoming a Candidate for a Certificate of Fitness for being called to the Bar, or of passing the Examination in Roman Law only, will be admissible.

Each Student proposing to submit himself for Examination will be required to enter his name, in full, personally or by letter, at the Treasurer's or Steward's Office of the Inn of Court to which he belongs, n or before Monday, the 5th day of October next; and he will further be required to state in writing whether his object in offering himself for Examination is to obtain a Certificate preliminary to a call to the Bar; or whether he is merely desirous of passing the Examination in Roman Law under the above-stated Rule.

The Examination will take place in the Hall of Lincoln's Inn; and the doors will be closed Ten Minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the Examination.

The Examination by Printed Questions will be conducted in the following order:—

HILARY EXAMINATION, 1892.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR STUDENTSHIPS AND PASS CERTIFICATES.

The attention of Students is requested to the following Rules:—

As an encouragement to Students to study Jurisprudence and Roman Civil Law, Twelve Studentships of One Hundred Guineas each shall be established, and divided equally into two classes; one class of such Studentships to continue for two years, and to be open for competition to any Student as to whom not more than four Terms shall have elapsed since he kept his first Term; and another class to continue for one year only, and to be open for competition to any Student, not then already entitled to a Studentship, as to whom not less than four and not more than eight Terms shall have elapsed since he kept his first Term; two of each class of such Studentships to be awarded by the Council, on the recommendation of the Committee, after every Examination before Hilary and Trinity Terms respectively, to the two Students of each of competitors who shall have passed the best Examination in both Jurisprudence and Roman Civil Law. But the Committee shall not be obliged to recommend any Studentship to be awarded if the result of the Examination be such as in their opinion not to justify such recommendation. Where any Candidates appear to be equal or nearly equal in merit, the Council may, if they think fit, divide the Studentship between them equally, or in such proportions as they consider just. Where in any year a Studentship in either Class is not awarded by reason of the Candidates not appearing to deserve it, the Council may, if they think fit, appropriate it, or a portion of it for that year to the other Class, or may offer it for Competition in some other subject.

No Student shall receive from the Council the Certificate of Fitness for call to the Bar required by the four Inns of Court unless he shall have passed a satisfactory Examination in the following Subjects, viz.: (1) Roman Law; (2) The Law of Real and Personal Property; (3) Common Law; and (4) Equity.

No Student (except such as come under the next-stated Rule) shall be examined for call to the Bar until he shall have kept nine Terms, but Students shall have the option of passing the Examination in Roman Law at any time after having kept four Terms.

A Student who, previously to his admission at an Inn of Court was a Solicitor in practice for not less than five years, may be examined for call to the Bar without keeping any Terms.

An Examination will be held in December next, to which a Student of any of the Inns of Court, who is desirous of becoming a Candidate for a Studentship, or of obtaining a Certificate of Fitness for being called to the Bar, or of passing the examination in Roman Law, only will be admissible.

Each Student proposing to submit himself for Examination will be required to enter his name in full, personally or by letter, at the Treasurer's or Steward's Office of the Inn of Court to which he belongs, on or before Friday, the 4th day of December next; and he will further be required to state in writing whether his object in offering himself for Examination is to compete for a Studentship, or to obtain a Certificate preliminary to a call to the Bar, or whether he is merely desirous of passing the Examination in Roman Law under the above-stated Rule.

The Examination will take place in the Hall of Lincoln's Inn; and the doors will be closed Ten Minutes after the time appointed for the commencement of the Examination.

The Examination by Printed Questions will be conducted in the following order:—

Monday and Tuesday, 14*th and* 15*th December*, at Ten until One, and from Two until Five on each day, the Examination of Candidates for Studentships in Jurisprudence and Roman Law.

The Examination of Candidates for Pass Certificates and for Pass in Roman Law only, will take place as follows:—

Wednesday Morning, 16*th December*, at Ten, on the Law of Real and Personal Property.
Thursday Morning, 17*th December*, at Ten, on Common Law.
Friday Morning, 18*th December*, at Ten, on Equity.
Saturday Morning, 19*th December*, at Ten, on Roman Law.

The Oral Examination will be conducted on the same days, and on the same Subjects, as above appointed for the Examination by Printed Questions.

JURISPRUDENCE, INTERNATIONAL LAW, AND ROMAN LAW.

Candidates for the Studentships will be examined in all the following Subjects:—

I. Institutes of Gaius and Institutes of Justinian.
II. Digest: Book XVIII., Title 1, "De Contrahenda Emptione." Book XVII., Title 2, "Pro Socio."
III. History of Roman Law.
IV. Principles of Jurisprudence, with special reference to the writings of Bentham, Austin, and Maine.

Friday, June 12, 1891.

Beningfield, Arthur, 123 and 129, Cheapside, and Maidenhead, Berkshire, Commission Agent and Merchant. High Ct of Justice in Bkcy. (No. 90.) Ord. June 1[illegible] Court refused to approve the composition proposed by the debtor to his creditors.

Tuesday, June 16, 1891.

Edwards, Jno, Newtown, Montgomeryshire, Grocer and Tobacconist. County Ct, Newtown. (No. 5.) Ord. June 11. To pay in full all preferential debts and costs of the bankruptcy proceedings within three calendar months from the approval of the creditors, and a Composition of 12s. in the pound, payable by three equal instalments of 4s. each, at intervals of four calendar months from the date of the approval of this Composition by the creditors. The whole to be distributed by the Official Receiver, and to be secured to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade. The Official Receiver to collect all book debts, and apply them towards payment of the preferential payments and Composition. The Official Receiver's remuneration as Trustee for distributing the Composition, to be according to the scale of the percentages of the Board of Trade in force for the time being.
Huntley, Robt E., Wallsend, Northumberland, Surgeon. County Ct, Newcastle-on-Tyne. (No. 40 of 1890.) Ord. June 12. 1. That the debtor pay to the Official Receiver the sum of 80l. on the 1st day of September, 1891, and a similar sum thenceforward quarterly on 1st December, 1st March, 1st June, and 1st September in each year, until the creditors are paid in full, with interest, and fees and costs, or are paid as provided in paragraph 3 below. 2. That the whole of the existing debts and other estate, together with all rights under an agreement, dated November, 1884, between the debtor and Dr. Wm Munro Jennings, with power to realize same, and the right to proceed to recover any moneys due to the estate, be vested in the Official Receiver by way of security. 3. That the Official Receiver apply such moneys as shall come into his hands by virtue of these presents in the manner following:—1st. In payment of the proper costs, charges, and expenses incidental to the proceedings, and all fees and percentages payable to the Official Receiver and the Board of Trade, and the expenses of carrying into effect the scheme of arrangement. Such payment to be provided for out of the first moneys realized under the powers vested in the Official Receiver under paragraph 2. 2nd. In payment in full of all debts directed by the Bankruptcy Act, 1883, to be paid in priority to other debts. Such payment to be provided for out of moneys realized under the powers vested in the Official Receiver under paragraph 2. 3rd.
